INT. ALIEN SPACESHIP - NIGHT

Note: POV is from Charlie's eyes.

CHARLIE is asleep on a surgical table surrounded by four individuals holding scalpels and wearing scrubs. CAPTAIN, unknown age, bald, gray skin, very skinny, is working on Charlie. A42, an alien similar to Captain, is working.

CAPTAIN:

(exhausted and apathetic) Name: Charlie Fredericks. Nation of origin: United States. Weight: 180 pounds. Height: 6 feet. Occupation: Air Force Pilot.
Species: Human.

AS THE ALIEN SAYS "HUMAN" CHARLIE WAKES TO SEE THAT HIS SURGEONS ARE ALIENS.

ALIEN 2:

Does he have the worm?

CAPTAIN:

That's what we're here to find out.

ALIEN 4:

Brain scans show possible worm on motor area. You should've kept him conscious. Where'd you find him?

CAPTAIN:

He's a pilot. What do you think?

ALIEN 2:

I thought pilots were off limits?
Didn't we come to an agreement with them?

Captain remains silent, slightly worrying those around him.

WHILE THE ALIENS ARE SPEAKING, THEY ARE PERFORMING SURGICAL ACTS ON CHARLIE.

A42:

(oblivious) I'm always shocked every time I see these guys with only one heart! Ha!

Captain and 2 look at Alien 3 with disappointment as if he had said something stupid. Alien 4 is busy at work.

ALIEN 2:

All I'm saying is that we should be more- (interrupted)

CAPTAIN:

(angry) Just don't worry about it. We have intestines to inspect.

ALIEN 2:

They said they'd shoot a-

CAPTAIN:

Enough!

The aliens work for a few seconds.

CAPTAIN:

I've always hated you.

The aliens drop their tools and look at the captain, shocked.

ALIEN 2:

What?

CAPTAIN:

Have you done a thing this entire voyage? All of us are left to do what you leave behind.

ALIEN 2:

I've done lots!

CAPTAIN:

(having slight convulsions) You're just extra weight.

ALIEN 2:

I found the disease on the mushroom!

CAPTAIN:

Oh right. The mushroom. Grow some ambition. Quit examining micro-organisms on billion-year-old mushrooms. This is your first human? After 15 orbits? No, no. It's your first animal. Not even an animal at the level which you should be dissecting nuclear-affected megacivilians.

ALIEN 2:
(shocked and angry) I thought we were supposed to be at work?

CAPTAIN:
Work. I'm getting reeeeeaaaal tired of working.

Captain dances his scalpel around the operating area around Charlie.

ALIEN 2:
Careful. You're gonna cut something?

CAPTAIN:
And if I do?

ALIEN 4:
Captain, you're scaring everyone.

Alien 1 makes a small cut in the skin of Charlie.

CAPTAIN:
(sarcastically) Oh my God!

ALIEN 2:
Stop it! We need to return him!

Captain pokes Charlie several more times, drawing small amounts of blood.

CHARLIE:
pop. pop. Pop. POP. POP. POP!

Charlie holds the scalpel over the neck of Charlie.

The aliens charge Captain and hold him on the ground.

ALIEN 4:
What's gotten into you?

CAPTAIN:
(in a raspy voice)It's over.

ALIEN 2:
Don't listen to him. Charlie's alive.

The camera shows that captain was looking out of the window, into space, where a missile was coming towards the spaceship.

Lots of white smoke (flour) is released, and a red light starts blinking and a siren starts blaring. Alien 3 and A42 are dead. Alien 2 looks at Captain, and shows him smiling, with some blood coming out of his mouth.

ALIEN 2:
(Near death) Why?

CAPTAIN:
(laugh turns into coughing fit) Ha!

Alien 2 collapses and is implied to die.

Captain giggles to himself.

Captain dies.

THE ENDING SHOT SHOWS A WORM SLOWLY EXITING THE EAR OF CAPTAIN.
